The "Seats of the Mighty" will be the next big Schubert feature. These feature shows, at Romans, are always good and always enjoyed.

LOST—Saturday on Lexington pike, ladies blue serge sack coat, two badges pinned in lapel. Any information will be gratefully received at this office, pd.

Miss Annie Herndon held the lucky number that drew the handsome set of china that was given away at the Romans Opera House last Saturday night.

The old soldiers are passing from the sight of a people to whom they have been an inspiration and a pride for more than a generation. Is there anyone to grudge full meed of praise and comfort for the few who still remain?

"Lives of poor men oft remind us honest toil don't stand a chance; the more we work we leave behind us bigger patches on our pants. On our pants once new and glossy now are patches of different hue; all because subscribers linger and won't pay up what is due.

If you want strawberries you had better buy this week as my supply will soon be exhausted. Phone 354-F. Walton E. Moss.

DECORATION DAY.

Decoration day is always observed in some way in Lancaster and this year will be no exception to the rule and all persons who have flowers are asked to see that the graves of the Blue and the Gray decorated alike and not forgotten.

CIRCLE GIRLS.

Mesdames L. G. Davidson, L. N. Miller, W. S. Embry, Rozella Dunn, Sallie Lawson, Albert Ware, Bruce Lawson and Misses Allie Yantis and Bessie Prather, represented the "Circle Girls" at the C. W. B. M. at Stanford Thursday. This circle received official recognition for sending in the best report in the 10th district.

NO DIRT ON THEM

Mr. Walton Moss, the strawberry king is using sanitary methods in caring for his berries and tells us that it doesn't matter how hard it rains, no dirt of any character ever gets to his berries. He presented this office with two boxes, gathered immediately after the down pour yesterday and they were perfectly clean of all foreign matter.

SOME PAPER.

The "Conclave Edition" of the Danville Messenger containing twenty pages, brim full of news and good reading matter, plenty of well set and displayed advertisements and printed on the best quality of book paper, takes the rag off the bush over anything we have ever seen gotten out at any country newspaper office. It is indeed a credit to the town, an honor to the profession and should prove a blessing to its many subscribers. We take off our hats to the Danville Messenger.

LANCASTER'S BOONE WAY.

By a purely typographical error, the name of Lancaster was omitted from the list of towns through which the Boone Way will pass, in the last issue of the I. J. The omission is sincerely regretted for the Garrard county boys, led by John M. Farris and Henry V. Bastin made a fine fight against some individual opposition in certain quarters and won out. The route goes from Stanford to Lancaster and thence to Danville, and the I. J. regrets that in some incomprehensible way the hustling little capital of Garrard was left out of its first report of the proceedings—Interior Journal.

METHODIST REVIVAL.

Brother Politt reports a great meeting at Bethlehem, Ky. Large crowds have attended every service and he has had a number of professions. He will be at home Saturday and fill his pulpit Sunday morning and night.

MUCH IMPROVED.

Uncle Dave Ross returned from Martinsville, Ind., last Tuesday, very much improved in health and very glad to be back home again. His friends will be glad to know that his rheumatism has almost entirely left him.

TWO IN ONE.

Mr. Wm. Marshbanks, of Paint Lick, brought to this office quite a curiosity in the shape of an egg. It was the hen variety and about the size of an ordinary goose egg. On the inside of this egg was a well developed and fully matured egg, the size of an ordinary hen egg, the shell being perfectly formed.

INFANT DIES

The seven month old baby of Mrs. Fanny Cross, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. Walter Hammack, died at the Good Samaritan hospital in Lexington Tuesday and will be buried in the Lancaster cemetery to-day. (Thursday) The little fellow had only been sick a few days and his death is a sad one to the family, besides being shockingly sudden.

YOUNG DOCTOR IN TOWN.

Lancaster has a brand new doctor in the person of Dr. James Burnett Gilbert. He has hung out his shingle at the home of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Gilbert, on Danville street, and for a while he will be administered unto, but hopes some day to pay the proud parents and friends back by administering unto them. If he is just half as good a doctor as is his father they will have every reason to be proud of him.

LUSCIOUS STRAWBERRIES.

Mr. John G. Doty, of Marksburg, brought us some strawberries Monday that were fit for the gods to eat, being entirely too good for mortal man. We do not know what variety he calls them but we call them the "hen egg" variety, all of them being about that size. Such acts as this make the thorny path of the editor a little easier and enables us to take up our duties with a lighter heart, glad to be a hungry editor.

FOUR WILLS

Probated in County Court Monday.

Most of the time of County Judge C. A. Arnold was occupied last Monday morning when four wills were filed for probate before him. The will of J. R. Henderson, dated Oct. 27th 1914, left one-third of all his property, both real and personal to his wife Lucy Henderson, the remainder to be divided equally among his four children. His sons, Samuel and William are made executors without bond. That of J. J. Thompson dated April 12th, 1910, left his widow the home place with 100 acres of land to be hers absolutely as long as she remained his widow. To his youngest daughter, Lucile he gives $500 in cash and she is to share equally with the nine children the remainder of his estate. James H. and J. Frank are made executors under the will. The will of Mrs. Ann Walker was also probated and Mr. B. E. Hudson was made executor under the will dated in year 1895. Steve Lewis, colored, under his will dated April 24th 1915, leaves his entire estate to his wife and children and Jim Hood together with his wife are made executors.

COURT DAY CROWD

The Largest In Years.

The largest crowd that has been in town on court day for months, was here last Monday. It was a busy day with merchants and reports are that business was very satisfactory in all lines. The farmers were especially happy over the fine rains of the last few days and with the present outlook for good crops, as most of them have taken advantage of the wet season and many tobacco plants have been set. There was about 150 cattle on the market and most of them sold at satisfactory prices. There was a good demand for long yearlings at from $30 to $35 a head.

J. D. Whitehouse, of Boyle, bought a bunch of yearlings at $25 to $30. Lawson and Brown bought a good bunch of lambs for June 15th delivery at 74 cents and quite a number of hogs of different parties at 7 cents for immediate delivery. Mr. Weil bought a bunch of heifers of Shell Oats at $27.50 a head. Mr. J. D. Horton of Lincoln sold a bunch of 16 head of steers for $22.50 a head. Mr. W. B. Burton the king of horse and mule buyers, made a few purchases here Monday; pair of four year old mules of Charlie Dean, for $310; three nice mules of Sweeney Morgan for $145 a head; a draft horse of Taylor House for $150 and an aged mule of Dick Albright, of Lincoln for $140. V. A. Lear another good Garrard county buyer bought a bunch of sheep of Job Marce at five cents a pound and of Ed Grow his entire crop of lambs for June delivery at 84 cents a pound, also the lambs of Job Marce at same price.

LEXINGTON GETS

MACCABEE MEETING.

The Supreme Tent of the Knights of Maccabees will be held in Lexington next year, according to a telegram received from San Francisco last Friday from Col. M. F. Elkin, commander of the Kentucky Maccabees and he is given full credit for having landed the victory for Lexington.

GOOD PROGRAM FOR KENTUCKY EDITORS.

An unusual program has been prepared for the midsummer meeting of the Kentucky Press Association, which will be held at Olympian Springs, June 11. President James R. Lemon and all members will give themselves up to four days of solid enjoyment, while the educational end of the program will provide ample facilities for every one to learn more about the conduct of the newspaper business.

ACCESSORIES AFTER

THE FACT.

The captain of the Leyland liner Etonian says that when he received the "S. O. S." of the Lusitania and tried to go to the rescue he was chased by two submarines and received a signal from the Narragansett, similarly attacked, which said she had been missed by eight feet only. The Etonian had to give up the effort.

It is not apparent, that the Etonian or the Narragansett, thirty miles from the Lusitania, could have reached her in time to be of service, inasmuch as she sank only a few minutes after the blow was dealt. Nevertheless the submarines which interfered with the attempt were accessories after the fact to the murder of the victims of Germany upon the Lusitania.

GARRARD BOY

WINS HONORS.

Last week Mr. G. C. Wilson of Paint Lick, Ky., a Junior in the Arts and Science department, won a triple set of prizes by winning first place in the Bennett Prize contest, first in the Barker short story contest and the best constructive worker in the Patterson Literary Society. The first prize was twenty dollars in gold, and the subject of his essay was "The Origin and Development of Parliamentary Government." The second prize was ten dollars in money or books, and the subject of the short story was "To Frisco Without a Cent." The third was five dollars in money or books for the best all round literary worker.

Mr. Wilson is the son of Geo. M. Wilson, a prominent farmer of Paint Lick Ky, and doubtless his friends will be glad to hear of his best efforts put forth in college.

TWO ROUTES

FOR DIXIE HIGHWAY THROUGH Kentucky. Lancaster Gets Neither.

The Commissioners appointed to select the "Dixie Highway" being unable to agree on one route, a compromise was made and two routes selected through Kentucky and Tennessee, known as an Eastern and Western route. The Eastern Route will run from Chattanooga to Knoxville to Cumberland Gap to Middleborough, to Mt. Vernon, to Berea, to Richmond, to Lexington and on to Cincinnati. The western branch will run from Chattanooga to Nashville, to Louisville to Indianapolis and on to Chicago.

Lancaster is left high and dry, as well as several other good blue grass towns, but we have the Boone Way and the best roads in the state and if we will just keep them up to the present high standard we will get the travel just the same, for we have put Lancaster on the map and she is there to stay.

CLOSE CALL

WHEN AUTO TURNS TURTLE.

While driving his machine at a moderate rate of speed out Water street last Friday evening about dusk, Mr. J. W. Sweeney accompanied by J. W. Palmer, lost control on the slippery street and the machine together with its occupants, turned turtle and landed upside down on the plank walk below, a distance of about six feet.

All three were pinned under the machine and but for the timely assistance of neighbors, who heard the crash, the accident might have proved fatal to some of these clever gentlemen. Mr. Palmer was pinned in such a manner that he nearly died of suffocation before assistance arrived, it was found afterwards that he had sustained a broken rib, while Mr. Sweeney received a severe cut on the lip and other painful lacerations. Mr. Hamilton was at first thought to have received fatal injuries and was carried to his home on a stretcher. While all had a close call, we are glad to state that they have all most entirely recovered and will soon be themselves again. This is the first automobile accident in Lancaster, notwithstanding the fact the large number now in use in the city.

KURFEES PAINT

The first stroke of the brush will prove the superior covering [hiding] power of Kurfees Pure Lead and Zinc Paint. You will immediately appreciate the difference in spreading a paint composed of:
80% Lead and 20% Zinc
and the paint you have heretofore been using.
In no other paint will you find 80% Lead; nor will you find a paint of such heavy body.
Ordinary paints do not cover like Kurfees paint, for the simple reason that they do not contain sufficient Lead to make them cover. You know a paint must contain Lead and lots of it, if you expect it to cover and wear well.
If you get Kurfees 80% Lead and 20% Zinc Paint, you don't need to buy as many gallons for the job as you would of ordinary paint, nor will you need to repaint the job so soon.
Kurfees Outside White is the whitest white; makes the whitest houses; and the colors are all good and permanent. Let us figure on your job.

We are headquarters for
